Woven into their trip are the stories of three bomb survivors, illustrated with archival film footage from before and after the war. The film has been restored to mark the 75th anniversary of the bombing, providing an opportunity for a younger generation to witness their testimony to the true consequences of nuclear war.

FINDING COURAGE

1 x 60' HD

A former journalist for the Chinese Communist Party (YIFEI WANG), living in exile in San Francisco, struggles to settle into life in America while working to heal her family's wounds from their tragic past, and seeking justice for the murder of her sister at the hands of the Chinese authorities. Rare undercover footage of a meeting with the director of the labor camp where Yifei's sister was killed reveals shocking admissions of torture, slave labor, corruption, and a general disregard for human life pervading the camp system today. Exclusive interviews with former Chinese Communist Party officials provide a unique insight into the hidden world of terror that many Chinese citizens live without ever knowing that life can, and does, exist with freedom outside their world.

ASK NO QUESTIONS

1 x 60' and 1 x 90' HD

When Chinese state TV blames his faith for a fiery public suicide, Chen Ruichang is detained in a Clockwork Orange-style brainwashing facility and forced to accept the government's account. But Chen, a former insider of the state TV himself, believes it was a government plot. A CNN reporter smuggled out footage of the event that day but was muzzled by Beijing. Now her eyewitness testimony helps untangle an intricate conspiracy, as Chinese authorities pressure the filmmaker's family and business associates. Ask No Questions shows the deadly power of media under authoritarian control. It also shows the remarkable power of an individual who refuses to compromise the truth.

She invites Manny to return to the orphanage, which has since become a grade school, to share his story with the next generation. Manny must now revisit the places of his darkest memories, to reconcile the past and educate the future.

JESSE COOK: FOLLOW THE ROAD

Live Music Special • 1 x 60' 4K/HD

Celebrated guitarist, composer and music producer Jesse Cook has been delivering unforgettable concert experiences to audiences across the globe for the over 25 years. As far as he has ventured, Jesse has always been fascinated with the mystique of the road that first led him out of Toronto. In his directorial debut, Cook shows us a concert from a perspective rarely seen...the musician's. Born to film director parents, guitarist Jesse Cook taps into this pedigree, and self-directed this story, his 5th Concert Special. The result is "Follow the Road". Captured in 4K, during his 31 City cross-Canada tour, we follow the band down the TransCanada Highway, against a backdrop of majestic mountains and stunning natural beauty, as they traverse the scenic splendor of the second largest country in the world.

JESSE COOK: THE BEST OF "LOVE IN THE TIME OF COVID"

1 x 60' 4K / HD

"I recorded these songs at home, over four months, at the height of lockdown. Music gave me a way to escape the four walls of my house. And sharing these videos gave me a community of music lovers to connect with. Although most of what you see here is me, alone, playing all the instruments, recording, mixing, filming and editing these videos, I was very fortunate to have friends and family who jumped in to help. With music and friends, you can get through almost anything."

SHARK DIVERS

Underwater / Ocean • 1 x 90' HD

SHARK DIVERS are people who study, photograph, interact with and even wrestle with some of the most terrifying creatures on earth. A select group of skilled professionals routinely work with, or near the animals out in the wild and in aquariums. This feature-length documentary focuses on this diverse and eclectic group – each with different motives in their unusual fields. Some are adrenaline junkies and many are staunch conservationists. Together, they form a community of people fascinated by sharks. Their enthusiasm (and fear) can be highly contagious! Learn all about the shark divers and the diverse group of graceful and powerful creatures they study – the tiger, lemon, mako, whale and the legendary great white sharks. Shark Divers gets up close and personal with the sharks and divers to share their passion and debunk the myth of the cold-blooded, man-eating shark.

ARYAN SAGA

History/Culture • 1 x 60' HD

Perched in the mountains of India's north, Ladakh is famous for its desolate beauty but also known for the legendary inhabitation of pure-blooded Aryans in parts of the region. The Aryans of Ladakh, known as "Drok-pa", stand out as tall and sharp-featured with big eyes and a fair complexion, numbering around 5,000 and have preserved their racial purity down the centuries. It is this racial purity that continues to attract visitors from Germany to study and research special related characteristics of these original inhabitants. It is a little known fact that even in this day and age, a few German couples continue to visit Ladakh to indulge in their obsession for racial purity. They come to adopt Aryan children and, in some cases, for the German female to couple with an Aryan male in the hope of bearing what they consider the 'racially superior seed'. Aryan Saga speaks candidly with couples in Germany who have been successful in rearing what they consider "Aryan progeny." Seeking the answer the question - why this obsession with race? The documentary explores the various ethical, moral, psychological and legal issues involved in this strange and disturbing...but true phenomenon.

THE SHIP SINKERS

History • 1 x 60' HD

They're floating junkyards... moth-balled, decommissioned naval vessels, rotting away in dockyards around the world. Cutting them up for scrap is expensive, and leaving them to fall apart where they are is an ecological nightmare. Sounds like a job for...THE SHIPSINKERS. The Shipsinkers takes us inside the process of turning aging, rusting hulks into thriving artificial reefs - from initial cleaning and preparation to explosives rigging to the last minute chaos as the clock counts down to zero. With exclusive archival materials from the early days of ship sinkings and stunning new high-definition footage, this program takes us on a journey from New Zealand, where a former frigate, the HMNZS Wellington, gets a new life underwater, to the British Columbia coast and the Florida Keys.

REBELS ON POINTE

Arts/Dance • 1 x 60' and 1 x 90' HD

Rebels on Pointe is the first film ever made about the world famous Ballet Trockadero de Monte Carlo. The New York based drag ballet company, commonly known as The Trocks, is made up of professional gay dancers, who all play both feminine and male roles in classical ballet pieces. And they do it with amazing talent, grace, and brilliant parody of Russian Imperial ballet. The film goes behind-the-scenes into their professional and dramatic personal lives, revealing powerful dance performances in Montreal, Tokyo, Edinburgh and other locations around the world, including revived choreographies of a Russian era that expertly combine humour and impeccable technique. Shot in Italy, the United States, Canada, Japan and Scotland, the film not only tells the inspiring stories of its main characters but also reveals the history of a dance company that has toured in over 50 countries and has a cult following worldwide. The dancers share stories about growing up, being gay and the many challenges and obstacles they faced to become professional ballerinas. Rebels on Pointe is a creative blend of gender bending expression, diversity and passion. A story which ultimately proves that a ballerina is not only a woman dancing but an act of revolution in a tutu.

SAVING THE MUSTANG NORTH AMERICA'S HORSE ON THE BRINK OF EXTINCTION

History/Animal • 1 x 60' HD

Wild mustangs have long been an icon of native peoples and early settlers of North America. Yet their fate today is uncertain. Traded, stolen and wild for 400 years, an estimated 2-3 million roamed North America in 1890 until they became almost extinct. The US Government has attempted to control the number of Wild Mustangs populated and in their view over grazed on vast tracks of public land. Over 41 thousand are now held in captivity. Saving The Mustang explores the state of wild horses today through the efforts of three individuals. Canadian horseman Randy Bird, endurance rider and song-writer Jean Albert Renaud and Roger William, past chief of the First Nation Xenigwet'in, who has created a 200,000 hectare wild horse preserve in the rugged wilderness of the Nemah Valley in British Columbia. All three stories interweave a compelling tale of perseverance and determination - one that offers hope for these amazing animals.

SOAR

Social/Arts/Dance • 1 x 60' HD

SOAR explores the evolving bond between two sisters: both are phenomenal dancers, one is a quadruple amputee from a childhood illness. Their art helps them define themselves, together and separately, and helps us redefine our idea of what is possible. SOAR celebrates the extraordinary ways that Kiera has learned to adapt and reveals Uriah's part in helping her sister adjust. Tension arises when Uriah steps away, finally admitting her need to define herself as an individual. But a dance concert reunites them, rekindling their powerful bond as artists and sisters.

THE EZIDIS OF IRAQ... THE SOUL IN PERIL

Current Affairs/History • 1 x 90' HD

The Ezidis are one of mankind's earliest monotheistic societies who have endured centuries of religious persecution as "Devil Worshipers". Their religion is linked to the ancient Mesopotamian religions and it combines aspects of Zoroastrianism, Islam, Christianity, and Judaism. There are well over a half million Ezidis living today in Iraq, Syria and Turkey and in 2014 an ongoing genocide by ISIS in Sinjar Province forced 50,000 Ezidis to flee into the nearby mountainous region. The film takes us to the heart of the Ezidis during the great annual pilgrimage, revealing their ancient vibrant rituals and customs... a rare tribute to the tolerant, pacifist, yet persecuted, people who are the Ezidis. They are now opening up to the outside world. This is their story.

UNSUNG HERO - THE HORSE IN THE CIVIL WAR

History/Animal • 1 x 60' HD

Unsung Hero presents the little-known story of the millions of horses that were used in all branches of both armies during the Civil War. It discusses how the horses were procured and trained for field use, how they were fed and maintained, and the extreme toll taken on them due to service in the field. Memoirs of soldiers are read, telling the stories of the horses they recalled and the incredible sacrifices of them. Hundreds of magnificent period photographs, drawings, illustrations, along with selected re-enactment scenes are employed to graphically illustrate the invaluable role of the horse in our history, history and culture.

FOREVER DAD

Social • 1 x 60' HD

Emotionally poignant, strongly touching and culturally significant, Forever Dad resonates deeply with today's parents and families.

TOUCHING LIFE

Social • 1 x 60' HD (English and French versions)

Touching Life brings the viewer into the inspiring world of a visually impaired couple raising their seven year old son. Yuko, originally from Japan, now lives in Vancouver with her husband Thilo, both of whom lost their sight in their twenties. In this ode to happiness, where life is felt rather than seen, we learn about the lives of Yuko and Thilo and how they pursued their dream of overcoming their disability, falling in love and reaching their ultimate goal of becoming parents. Because their son Kurtis is sighted, he becomes the link between the worlds of shadows and light. He lends them his sight while his parents raise him into adulthood. By delving into the lives of Yuko, Thilo and Kurtis, we rediscover our own. They remind us of a truth we can't see with our own eyes: that love makes the invisible luminous.

ART OF DARKNESS

Arts/Culture • 1 x 60' and 1 x 90' HD

Art of Darkness is a fascinating documentary intimately profiling controversial painter and world-famous performance artist Bryan Lewis Saunders. Bryan is renowned for his commitment to producing a self-portrait every day, which, to date, number well over 10,000. A complex individual with admitted psychopathic tendencies, Bryan narrates his dark, complex process and the experiences that have shaped him and how he uses art to help tame his inner demons. Bryan's famed 'drug series' of self-portraits while under the influence of a variety of mind-altering substances, has made him an overnight viral Internet sensation garnering a legion of loyal fans worldwide.

FRITZ

Social/Culture • 1 x 60' HD

When Ben and Mike discover Fritz, he's hit a tough patch in life. His girlfriend of ten years, Darlene, recently passed away. He has a tumultuous relationship with his brother Vince, who thinks his dreams of being a professional artist are foolish and unabashedly throws his failures in his face. Lastly, Fritz's hearing issues cause him to struggle in social situations. He has few friends. They photograph Fritz, his work and convince him to build a new art studio in his rundown basement. Finally they take a road trip to NYC to visit a huge art fair and show Fritz how America has turned fine art collecting into a shopping mall experience. A surprise twist ending reveals what "making it" in the art world is all about.

THROUGH THE MIRROR OF CHESS:

TO BE TAKEI

1 x 53' and 1 x 93' HD

George Takei was always searching for the perfect role - only to find it within himself. Jennifer Kroot's TO BE TAKEI follows Takei and his husband Brad, capturing their day-to-day as they prepare for Takei's dream project, ALLEGIANCE, a musical based on his harrowing childhood experiences inside a Japanese American internment camp during World War II. Intertwined with this narrative is a look into Takei's life history, from his rise to fame as helmsman Hikaru Sulu on the iconic television series, STAR TREK, to his advocacy for marriage equality and civil rights across the United States. What emerges is a portrait of an outspoken activist who utilizes wit, whimsy, grace and humor to bring attention to the sorrows of his past and the joys of love and creativity in his present. Featuring interviews with STAR TREK's William Shatner, Leonard Nimoy, Nichelle Nichols, and Walter Koenig, plus journalist Dan Savage and radio host Howard Stern, TO BE TAKEI shows Takei as he's never been seen before.

THE LEGEND OF KALINGA

1 x 60' HD

The Legend of Kalinga is a beautifully narrated journey to the village of Buscalan located in Kalinga, North of Luzon in the Philippines to explore the ancient culture of the Kalinga tribe through an ages-old love story. Whang-Od is the last female "Mombobtok" tribal tattoo artist of the Kalinga. Today she is 103 years old and is still performing tribal tattoos for tattoo seekers who arrive every day to seek her sought-after skin art. She recounts her painful love story of a handsome Headhunter from neighboring village with whom she fell in love while rendering a tattoo for his bravery. The Legend of Kalinga emotionally explores how old culture pushes and forces even the most ardent lovers apart.

BEAT BOX INDIA

1 x 60' HD

Beat Box India focuses on the rise of the new age of beatboxing culture in India. India is a diversified country, separated by factors like caste, religion and culture. Across India, however, music is a prime factor and the language that connects everyone – and if music is the language, then beatboxing is beyond language. Beatboxing is an organic art-form that has captured young Indian minds in recent years as it became a medium of self-expression for young talents. Beat Box India captures the modern, real-life journey of passionate beat boxers both from India and beyond through interviews explaining their vision and drive in navigating the new world of this often misunderstood art.
